Help us preserve the heritage of this Topeka treasure.

Early advocates of Topeka High School knew that the school offered more to the community than just an open space for children. They wished it to be “an addition to the city’s public buildings, and not just another building.” To the thousands of students and alumni who have graced the halls, Topeka High School is not just another building. It is the place where our pride was born. It is the place where we became Trojans!

Today, Topeka High School continues to serve thousands of students each year. Its influence reaches throughout the country.

Join the Topeka High School Historical Society.

Your membership helps support:

- Organizing the 150th of Topeka High
- Preservation of historical artifacts for the THS archives and Paul Fink Museum
- Friends of Topeka High luncheons for THS graduates and supporters
- Publishing of Historical Society newsletter
- Reunions and tours
- Hall of Fame inductions
- Annual Chimes Concert
